casualties.

- OPERATION MONTGOMERY RENDEZVOUS (THUA THIEN PROVINCE) commenced on 8 June. Under the operational control of the 3rd Brigade, U.S. 101st Airborne Division (Airmobile), it is a multi-battalion search and clear operation centered in an area 28 miles WSW of Hue (70 miles NNW of Da Nang). The participating U.S. forces, operating in conjunction with elements of the Army of the Republic of Vietnam 1st Infantry Division, have the mission of locating, capturing or destroying enemy forces, materiel and equipment. Enemy losses to date are: 106 killed, 4 susppects detained, 58 weapons captured (18 crew-served). U.S. losses are 21 killed, and 130 wounded, of which 124 were evacuated.

- OPERATION VIRGINIA RIDGE (QUANG TRI PROVINCE). Five incidents occurred, all close in proximity of time and locale:

1. At 1330 troopers of the 3rd Regiment, U.S. 3rd Marine Division, engaged an unknown size North Vietnamese Army force 2 miles WSW of Gio Linh (95 miles NW of Da Nang) in a small arms and automatic weapons fire. U.S. artillery and tactical air strikes were directed onto the location, and the enemy withdrew at 1700. Ten NVA dead were found and 2 individual weapons captured. U.S. casualties were 10 killed, 17 wounded.

2. At 1400 another element of the regiment was attacked by an estimated NVA company 2 miles SW of Gio Linh, using small arms, automatic weapons, 60mm mortars, and rocket-propelled grenades. The Marines defended, supported first by artillery and later by more Marines.
The enemy withdrew at 1815. Twenty-six dead NVA were found, and 3 enemy were detained. Also, 12 individual and 5 crew-served weapons were captured. U.S. casualties: 6 killed, 13 wounded.

3. At 1445 during the fighting, a 3rd Marine Division aerial observer sighted 75 to 100 armed NVA soldiers SE of the battle area and 2 miles SSW of Gio Linh. Artillery and tactical air strikes directed by him killed 30 NVA. No U.S. casualties.

4. At 1530 another element of the regiment engaged an unknown size NVA force 2½ miles SW of Gio Linh (near the other two actions in progress) in an exchange of small arms and automatic weapons fire, and, supported by artillery, the Marines attacked, forcing the enemy to withdraw at 1800. Eighteen dead NVA were found, 11 individual and 3 crew-served weapons were captured. Marine casualties were one killed, and four wounded.

4. At 1600, another Marine aerial observer directed tactical air strikes onto 25 armed NVA soldiers he sighted 2½ miles SSE of Gio Linh, and 1,000 meters from the earlier sightings. The bodies of 18 NVA soldiers were sighted lying in the strike area after the engagement.
TOAN THANG OFFENSIVE (HAU NGO MIA PROVINCE) -- At 1630 U.S. Army helicopters transporting members of the 2nd Brigade, U.S. 25th Infantry Division, received heavy ground fire near a landing zone 8 miles NE of Trang Bang (28 miles NE of Saigon). The enemy positions were engaged with helicopter gunships and USAF tactical air strikes, and the infantrymen were air-assaulted into the landing zone. They found 32 enemy soldiers killed by the air strikes, and captured 6 individual and 7 crew-served weapons left scattered in the area. There was no ground contact and no U.S. casualties.

CHRONOLOGY OF TROOP REDPLOYMENT

Because of the interest in the replacement and redeployment of troops from Vietnam to other parts of the world, this section has been added to this month's summary. It will also help to detail the announcements concerning the troop movements more clearly, since such announcements have come not only through local news releases, but also through memorandums, communiques, oral briefings, and announcements made elsewhere. Events as they occurred in June are as follows:

13 June:

It was announced in Washington, D.C.; Honolulu, Hawaii; and Saigon (131030 Washington time - 132330 Saigon time) that Secretary of Defense Melvin Laird had approved the initial recommendation of Admiral John S. McCain, Jr., Commander in Chief, Pacific, and General Creighton W. Adams, COMUSMACV, for the first replacement of U.S. troops in Vietnam by South Vietnamese forces. The action followed President Nixon's decision at Midway to replace approximately 25,000 U.S. military personnel in the Republic of Vietnam. Among the units to depart by the end of August were two brigades of the 9th Infantry Division, and a Marine Corps Regimental Landing Team of the 3rd Marine Division. It was reported that the first combat unit to be replaced would be a battalion of the 9th Infantry Division (900 men) who would be airlifted to the continental United States before mid-July for inactivation. (The above is from a MEMORANDUM TO THE PRESS issued with the news release of the morning of 14 June, 1969).

14 June:

It was announced in Washington, D.C., at 141530 EDT (150330 June Saigon) that Admiral John S. McCain, Jr., CINCPAC, reported to Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird that rapid and orderly action is being taken to implement President Nixon's decision at Midway to replace 25,000 U.S. troops with Republic of Vietnam Armed Forces units by the end of August. It was added that approximately 8,000 soldiers, including about 2,000 reservists on active duty, will be returned to the continental U.S. and their units will be inactivated or demobilized. It was also reported that some Navy personnel will be included among those departing from the Republic of Vietnam. (The above is from a MEMO FOR THE PRESS issued with the news release of the evening of 15 June, 1969).

16 June:

It was announced that some 1,200 U.S. Navy personnel now serving in the Republic of Vietnam would be redeployed before the end of August, 1969. The personnel involved will come from the staff of the U.S. Navy's Mobile Riverine Force (MRF), four of the MRF's support ships and some Navy personnel supporting U.S. Marine units in the I corps area. The four support ships named for redeployment are: The self-propelled Barracks Ships, USS MERCER (APB 39) and USS NUECES (APB 40); the Landing Ship Tank, USS WHITFIELD COUNTY (LST 1169), and the Auxiliary Personnel Lighter (APL 26). (The above is from a MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESS issued with the news release of the evening of 16 June, 1969).
17 June:

The U.S. Command announced the unit designations of the approximately 2,000 Army Reserve and National Guard personnel scheduled for demobilization. The list, in its entirety, is on page 58 of this month's summary. (The above is from a SPECIAL RELEASE issued separately on the evening of 17 June, 1969).

17 June:

It was announced in Washington, D.C., at 171030 EDT (172230 June Saigon) that Secretary of Defense Melvin Laird had approved recommendations of the Project Vietnamization conference on the destinations of the additional 17,000 personnel involved in the replacement of 25,000 U.S. troops by Republic of Vietnam Forces. A total of 7,400 Army troops including Headquarters 9th Infantry Division and the Division's first Brigade will redeploy to Hawaii during July and August. Approximately 8,000 Marines of the 9th Regimental Landing Team, Third Marine Division, will move to Okinawa with a Marine Corps tactical fighter squadron of about 400 men going to Japan. An additional 1,200 Navy personnel will be redeployed to locations within the Pacific and the United States, with the deployments to be completed by the end of August. (The above is from a MEMORANDUM TO THE PRESS issued with the News Release of the morning of 18 June, 1969).

18 June:

The designation of Non-Divisional Army Units (involving 2,000 personnel) to be redeployed from the Republic of Vietnam by August were announced. The units, named to move to the continental U.S. for inactivation, are: the 86th Engineer Battalion (construction); 6th Battalion, 56 Artillery (Air Defense) (Hawk); 70th Engineer Company; 1097 Transportation Company (Medium Boat). It was stated that these units constitute the remainder of the 4,000 non-divisional Army personnel to be replaced. The other 2,000 personnel in the overall total are in the Army Reserve and Army National Guard unit listing announced 17 June, 1969. (The above is from a MEMORANDUM TO THE PRESS issued with the News Release of the evening of 18 June, 1969).

18 June:

It was announced that the designation of the initial unit to redeploy from Vietnam will be the 3rd Battalion, 60th Infantry, which is part of the 2nd Brigade, 9th Infantry Division. The battalion will be airlifted on or about 8 July to the continental United States for inactivation. The remainder of the 2nd Brigade, which includes the brigade headquarters company, the 3rd Battalion 47th Infantry and the 4th Battalion 47th Infantry will move to the continental United States at a later date. These units will be inactivated. (The above is from a MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESS issued with the News Release of the evening of 18 June, 1969).

18 June:

A recapitulation of the strengths of forces to be redeployed from the Republic of Vietnam by the end of August was issued. It read as follows:
